

2008 MIDWEST IN MOTION
Education and Networking For Tax Professionals

We are delighted to have two of the nation's most popular and highly acclaimed tax educators share billing at this year's conference. Bob McKenzie and Beanna Whitlock bring humor, energy, stories of real-life experiences and a wealth of knowledge into each session.

Robert E McKenzie, ESQ, EA

A dynamic and nationally recognized attorney, author and lecturer, Bob began his tax career with the Internal Revenue Service. He is a Partner in the law firm, Arnstein & Lehr LLP, of Chicago where he specializes in representation before the Internal Revenue Service and state tax agencies. Regular media appearances include Dateline NBC and The ABC Nightly News. Bob was Dean of the National Tax Practice Institute from 1998 until 2002. He authored Representation Before the Collection Division of the IRS and co-authored Representing The Audited Taxpayer Before the IRS and Representation Before the United States Tax Court. He received an AV rating from Martindale and Hubbell, has been selected for listing by Law and Leading Attorneys and elected to the American College of Tax Counsel.

Beanna J Whitlock, EA

A tax professional for over thirty-five years and Enrolled Agent since 1979, Beanna served as Director – National Public Liaison for the Internal Revenue Service from June 30, 2003 until September 30, 2004. She has been the front-runner for many practitioner issues, testifying before state and national regulative and legislative bodies. She has authored numerous articles appearing in Time, Newsweek, Parent's, Ladies Home Journal, Accounting Today, the EA Journal and National Public Accountant. Beanna holds Insurance, Series 6 and Series 63 licenses and has been honored by GE Terra Financial as one of the outstanding producers in the Southern Region. Accounting Today acknowledged Beanna as One of the Top 100 Most Influential In Accounting for an unprecedented seven consecutive years. Beanna will delight you with her stories as she shares more wisdom than her slight frame should be able to hold.
